

Who, What When, Where, Why, How

When does the program start?

Automatic Payment Plan should begin automatic bill payment with the start of the next billing statement after receiving your authorization sign up form. Keep paying your bill until your statement reflects that you are set-up for Automatic Payment Plan.

How does my bill get paid?

You will continue to receive notices of your bill amount. Automatic Payment Plan will contact your financial institution, which will automatically deduct the amount from your designated account.

When will my financial institution deduct the amount from my account?

Deductions will be made five (5) days prior to due date.

How much does this service cost?

The service is free.

What if I wanted to cancel?

You can stop participating in Automatic Payment Plan at any time by notifying our office in writing. Our address is P.O. Box 637, Wheat Ridge, CO 80034-0637.

What if I have questions about my bill and the Automatic Payment Plan?

Call Customer Service at 303-424-2844. Contact us at least five business days before the payment date, and we will postpone deductions until we have answered your questions.
